

James-Bates-Brannan-Groover-LLP is proud to announce that

Carlos Alexander

has joined the firm as an Associate.

Carlos Alexander's practice focuses on litigation and employment related fields. Carlos has worked with employers in defending against lawsuits under Title VII and in responding to EEOC actions. He is also involved in assisting human resource departments in crafting and updating their policy manuals. Carlos has also worked on civil litigation for many small to medium size businesses in the Middle Georgia area. He works closely with each client to ensure their needs are met and exceeded. Carlos graduated from the University Of Georgia School Of Law in 2016. During law school Carlos was a recipient of the UGA Foundation Scholarship, and the Chester Davenport Scholarship. Carlos was an active member of the Christian Legal Society and the Black Law Students Association. Carlos and his wife Katie have 2 grown sons and 2 granddaughters and currently reside in Macon, Georgia.

Offices in Macon and Atlanta
GeorgiasLawFirm.com