

James-Bates-Brannan-Groover-LLP is proud to announce that

Jacqueline Kennedy-Dvorak

has joined the firm as an Associate.

Mrs. Dvorak focuses her practice on eminent domain, liability defense, and general civil litigation, and has experience in municipal, estate, farm/agriculture, and employment law, as well as habeas corpus defense. Mrs. Dvorak is originally from the Central Coast of California, although she has lived in Texas, Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina, Michigan, New York City, and Florida. She earned her B.A. from Hollins University in 2003, a Masters of Arts in Liberal Arts from St. John's College in 2006, and her J.D. from Ave Maria School of Law in 2011. Mrs. Dvorak is a frequent visitor to many of Macon's establishments, including the Museum of Arts and Science, local galleries, public parks, the farmer's market, and other outdoor establishments. Mrs. Dvorak is a parishioner at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church, and she and her husband, Doron, an Assistant Public Defender, have two children.

Offices in Macon and Atlanta
GeorgiasLawFirm.com